My Bodyworks

My brain makes me think and feel, frown and cry and run and jump!

My brain makes me think and feel, frown and cry and run and jump! My

All because my brain tells me so. Yeah!

All because my brain tells me so. Yeah!

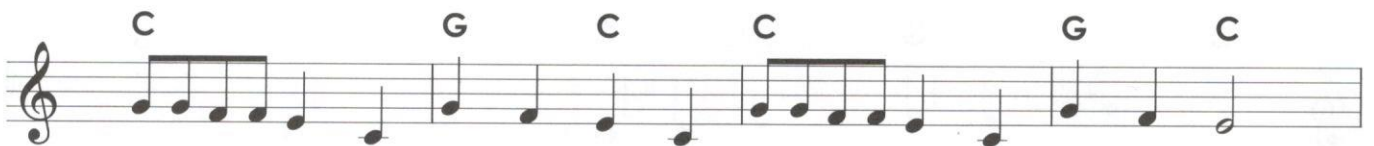

brain tells me to give a smile, to give a scream, to give a kiss.

brain tells me to give a smile, to give a scream, to give a kiss. My

Where Would I Live?

Would I want to live in a cas-tle with a moat? Or would it be on a ri-ver with a boat?

Would it be an ig-loo made of ice or would it be a barn with three blind mice?

Where do you think is the best, best place for me?

Would it be a tree-house in the woods? Or would it be a tent with Ro - bin Hood?

Would it be a cave with a grizz - ly bear? Or would it be a te-pee with a boun - cy hare?

Where do you think is the best, best place for me?

Seasons and Me

I spy a crab, a lobster and a penguin
Two slippery eels and a little shrimp
Three slow turtles and a huge marlin
Four walruses and a pink dolphin
I spy an ant, a spider and a butterfly
Five humming bees and a noisy housefly
Six slimy snails and a green centipede
Seven tiny fleas and so many ticks
I spy a squirrel, a goat and a cow
Eight growling bears and a hungry crocodile
Nine cunning foxes and a pretty flamingo
Ten screaming eagles and a dancing hippo
